VOL. VI. NO. 109.

CHICAGO, TUESDAY, MAY 8, 1900.

PRICE, 5 CENTS.

READY AT LAKESIDE.

Cheerful expectancy prevails in the ranks of local patrons of racing. Thursday the rapid patter of the flying feet of thoroughbreds in action will be heard at Lakeside and the Chicago racing season of 1900 will at last be inaugurated. It is true that Lakeside is across the border line in Hoosierland, but all the same it is in all essentials a Chicago race track and it is well assured in advance that the racing there this spring will be superior to any that has heretofore marked the history of the course. The institution of stakes has resulted in drawing horses of a class averaging well up with anything that has so far shown at Memphis, Nashville and Louisville, and with fair weather some notable contests will be sure to mark the progress of the near-at-hand meeting.

Because of insufficient stabling for more than the horses meant for racing at the meeting Secretary Nathanson had great difficulties to contend with, but has surmounted all, and now has everything ready for the opening day. The stables are full of racers ready for the fray and those not ready or not intended to be started until later are safely provided for at Harlem and Hawthorne.

Among those who arrived at Lakeside Sunday with race horses were: Carruthers & Shields, Highland Park, Mich., with six, including Erwin, Topmast and King Carnival; J. B. Respass, from Covington, Ky., with twenty, among them being Frank Thompson, Maceo, Mr. Brown, Gold Fox, Abe Furst and John Grigsby. Respass' string also includes a likely lot of two-year-olds. James Curl brought five from Humphreys, Mo.

Special race trains will be run to the track during the coming meeting by both the Fort Wayne and Illinois Central roads. The train schedule will be ready shortly.

Among the many owners of racers who have stall room at Lakeside are the following, with the number of horses:

J. Arthur, 8; P. M. Civill, 4; T. Licalzi, 11; F. Foster, 5; A. C. Clark, 6; R. Bradley, 20; C. Davis, 6; K. Stone, 6; J. F. Newman, 2; J. J. Marklein, 15; E. Brewster, 7; W. E. Vater, 3; S. S. Carruthers & Shields did not bring Advance Guard to Lakeside in their shipment from Highland Park Sunday. Advance Guard is at Morris Park where he will be a contender in the Baychester stakes May 15. After that event the colt will be shipped west and will be one of the starters in the Lakeside stakes which will be run Saturday, May 19.

Owing to rain Starter Dwyer was unable to school any of the two-year-olds yesterday. He will be at the track early this morning to put the youngsters through their "preps."

HAWTHORNE STAKE DATES.

Secretary Harry Kuhl has arranged and published the following dates for running off the Chicago Jockey Club stakes at its approaching spring meeting.

The list of dates and stakes is as follows:

Monday, May 28—Flight Stakes, $2,000, for three-year-olds and upward; 81 nominations; 6 furlongs.

Wednesday, May 30—Hawthorne Turf Congress Handicap, $2,000 added, for three-year-olds and upward; 93 nominations; 1 1-16 miles.

Thursday, May 31—Test Stakes, $1,800, for two-year-olds; 83 nominations; 5 1/2 furlongs.

Saturday, June 2—Speculation Stakes, $2,000, for three-year-olds and upward; 103 nominations; 1 mile.

Monday, June 4—Juvenile Stakes, $1,800, for two-year-olds; 87 nominations; 5 furlongs.

Wednesday, June 6—June Stakes, $2,000, for three-year-olds and upward; 67 nominations; 1 1-8 miles.

Friday, June 8—Hawthorne Stakes, $1,800, for two-year-olds; 94 nominations; 5 furlongs.

In the list of entries almost certain to start in these events are such good ones as Sofala, Advance Guard, Lieutenant Gibson, Miss Bennett, La Goleta, Lady Elite, Tenby, Admiral Schley, Boney Boy, Thrive, Crocket, Erwin, Silver Fizz, Algol, Dr. Sheppard, Potente, The Lady, Yellow Tail, Knightbanneret, Macy, What'er Lou, Belle of Memphis, Carnero, Streamer, Sam Phillips, Highland Lad, Florizar, Serrano, The Devil, Topmast, Catastrophe, Cambrian, John Baker, Cherry Leaf, Andes, Hermoso, Goebel, Mint Sauce, Sam Fullen, Hintine, Frank Bell, Ben Ledi, Rosinante, Sam McKeever, Diderot, Denman Thompson, Sig Levy, Sard, Lucidia and Sad Sam.

ST. LOUIS SATURDAY.

Racing will be inaugurated at the Fair Grounds next Saturday, when the Inaugural, $2,000 guaranteed, at one mile, will be the feature of the card. There were fifty-six nominations to the Inaugural, of which twenty-seven have accepted the weights assigned them. Nine of the eligible starters to the race are already at the track, namely: W. Overton, Duke of Baden, Laureate, Lady Callahan, Capron, Alice Turner, Admiral Schley, Pinochle and Maud Wallace.

Alice Turner, however, was cut down in her last race at Memphis and will not be able to start again before next fall. Her stable companion, Maud Wallace will represent Keith & Patton in the stake. Brewer Schorr has two candidates for the Inaugural, W. Overton and Streamer. The latter is now at Louisville and may be brought here next week. Streamer seems to be the best handicap horse in the Schorr stable. He won the Peabody Handicap at Memphis and ran second to Laureate in the Montgomery Handicap at the same place. W. Overton has not started this year.

George C. Bennett has three candidates for the Inaugural in Laureate, Capron and Admiral Schley, the last two being three-year-olds. Laureate is the eight-year-old son of Volante that captured the Montgomery Handicap at Memphis for Bennett. Capron is the colt that ran second to The Conqueror in the Turf Congress Stakes at Little Rock. J. S. O'Brien expects to pull down the Inaugural with Duke of Baden, the colt that won so many races for him at the Fair Grounds in '99.

M. S. Hughes thinks he has a good chance to carry off the big end of the stake with Lady Callahan, the Missouri-bred mare that performed so consistently here last season. Doctor F. W. Holtgrewe's horse, Pinochle, is said to have recovered his '98 form and if he has he will doubtless run some in the Inaugural.

Three Inaugural candidates are coming from California. "Boots" Durnell will bring Dr. Sheppard.

Captain Hackett has shipped his fast horse Yellow Tail in the same car with Dr. Sheppard, and W. J. Speirs will bring "Lucky" Baldwin's great mare La Goleta. Charlie Thorpe has been engaged to pilot Yellow Tail in the first big event of the local meeting. Yellow Tail's trial for the Inaugural at Oakland last week was a phenomenal one, and his owner and trainer believe that the fast big son of Water-cress has the St. Louis event at his mercy.

Tom Ryan is expected this week from Nashville with The Roman and St. Simonian. Pat Tomlinson is also coming from the same place with The Conqueror. J. C. Cahn will bring Thrive and Crocket over from Louisville, and Fred Foster may run down from Chicago with Sam McKeever. A list of the eligibles to the Inaugural will be found below:

The Inaugural was first run in '92, when Ed Corrigan's mare, Helter Skelter, beat Oregon Eclipse and her stable companion, Huron, in the stake. Dan Lamasney's fast colt, Service, with Frank Jordan in the saddle, galloped home in the mud before Highland and Quiver in '93, and Yo Tambien, with George Taylor up, scored over Highland and Chiswick in '94. Highland, who ran second in the Inaugural, is now a member of the broodmare band at Barney Schreiber's Woodlands Stock Farm in St. Louis County. Galen Brown's Libertine won the most valuable Inaugural in '95, when it was worth $3,900 to the winner, and Clarence O'Fallon's Assignee ran the fastest Inaugural in '96, when Buck Massie made him step a mile in 1:40. Prior to '95 the route was only three-quarters. Brewer Schorr won the Inaugural in '97 with Macy, who was ridden by Tommy Burns. John Huffman captured the stake in '98 with What'er Lou. Last year Doctor Sheppard scored in the event for Burns & Waterhouse, who sold the horse to "Boots" Durnell recently. A history of the stake will be found below:

Year.	First.	Second.	Third.	Time.	Value.
1892	Helter Skelter	Oregon Eclipse	Huron	1:16 1/2	$2,920

NOTES OF THE TURF.

The Juvenile has been one of the star two-year-old features at Morris Park since it was transferred from old Jerome Park in 1892. Some of the past winners, such as Dr. Rice, Casseopia, Firearm, Glenheim and Doublet, have since been prominent factors in the game, but it remained for Tommy Atkins to secure the additional honor of the fastest time ever made in the Juvenile. The best of his predecessors failed to show better than the even minute, but the Masetto youngster came home in 0:59 1/4 besides repeating the Keene triumph of last spring.

J. Mooney, St. Louis.—The bet is off. My Gypsy opened at 4 to 5.

G. J. Jaeger, St. Louis.—Kentucky Farmer was 8 to 5 place, 1 to 2 show.

Subscriber, Chicago.—The odds quoted on Thrive were wrong. They should have read, place, 2 to 1; show, evens.

G. W. McKee, Windsor, Ont.—Chopin, place, 3 to 5; show, out.

G. W. P., St. Louis, Mo.—It is impossible to inform you, as on unplaced horses we only secure place and show odds on those that are at 4 to 1 or less in the closing betting.

Winner—Ch. c, by Likely—Virginia Keene.
Went to post at 2:30. At post 11 minutes. Start straggling. The first three were driving hard. The Auditor won through sheer gameness. He was under pressure from start to finish and stood it like a veteran. Had Isobel been of much account she could not have lost. The starter sent her away flying two lengths in front of the others. School for Scandal ran a good race but hung a bit at the end. At one time in the stretch she was a half length in front. Bob Baker had no chance from where he got off. Mark him. He has worked fast and has a good private reputation. Royal Morsel was practically left and Devin never made a move on her.
Scratched—17679 Queen of Day, 105.

The Auditor, place, 8 to 5; show, 3 to 5. Isobel, place, 4 to 5; show, out. School for Scandal, show, 8 to 1. Bob Baker, place, evens; show, 2 to 5. Long entry, place, 2 to 5; show, out.

Went to post at 3:15. At post 4 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; the next three were under pressure. Samovar was the best and held his field safe all the way. Vandusen waited on Beekman to the half, and then passed him like a flash. Possum, under a good ride, ran a good race and finished stoutly. The ride on Compensation was clumsy. Kitley seemed afraid going around the first turn and lost a golden opportunity to gain a good position. On his own courage and with the reins flapping on his neck Compensation was galloping over horses in front of him at the end. Beekman flattered his backers for about three-quarters and then quit badly. Clara Meader did not seem to have any speed in the first part of it, but finished stoutly.

Samovar, place, out. Possum, place, 2 to 1; show, 4 to 5. Compensation, show, evens.

Winner—Br. f, by Likely—Illness.
Went to post at 3:40. At post 7 minutes. Start good. Won cleverly; second, third and fourth were driving to the limit. Likeness ran a fine race and came away like a good one in the stretch. She was well handled and in the best going all the way. Ep had no excuses. She got a flying start and nothing ever bothered her. Winkfield used poor judgment by taking the filly in close to the rail in the stretch, but she was beaten when he made this mistake. Esther Riggs was all tangled up at the start and never really got straightened out until the stretch was reached. Then she finished with a rush. Tenletta showed a lot of speed but hit herself on the stretch turn and Crowhurst had to ease her up.

Scratched—17701 Vesaluis, 103; 17705 Mattie Bain, 96; 17705 Annie Louise, 96.

Winner—Br. f, by Order—Ruby Royal.
Went to post at 2:30. At post 10 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. It was a two-horse contest throughout between Oread and Oliver Mc and Oread outgamed the latter at the finish. Oread will be hard to beat from now on in her class. Olea swerved from the middle of the track to the inside rail when it came to a drive. Prestidigitator could not live the pace and dropped out of it in the final furlong. Brusquerie ran a fairly good race. Lady Contrary was never prominent.

Scratched—15562 Ben Hadad, 110; 14627 Rochester, 91.
Overweights—Brusquerie, 3 pounds; The Laurel, 2; Chenille, 1.

Went to post at 3:05. At post 9 minutes. Start bad. Won easily; second and third driving. Far Rockaway always held his field safe. He was drawing away at the end and won as he pleased and is a fast one. Mauga finished strongly and would have been second in two more strides. Billionaire and Bounteous had a great contest for place. The Parader and Seip ran well. The Rhymer is a bad actor at the post. Longshoreman got off badly.

Went to post at 3:40. At post 12 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Magnificent had to go all around his field to get to the front. He was best and was drawing away at the end. Asquith ran a sparkling race. He came from last place at the stretch turn and finished fast and strongly on the outside. Herbert was cut off at the turn out of the backstretch and Mitchell had to pull up. He came again fast at the end. Watch him. Goldone and Mark Cheek faded away in the run home. The latter did well for part of the route and may have been short.

Went to post at 4:15. At post 12 minutes. Start good. Won ridden out; second driving. Hesper was best and well ridden but had to be hustled along through the entire route. Buffoon was in a pocket to the stretch where he had a sharp contest all through the last furlong with King Bramble. The latter pinned his ears back in the last sixteenth and appeared to be sulking. Chappaqua showed early speed but stopped as if short.

Went to post at 4:55. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won all out; second easily. Approval made his debut for the year in good form and under strong riding won like a good horse, although tiring at the end. Wait Not had to go all around his field and was gradually wearing the leader down at the end. Survivor had a rough journey. He was under restraint on the backstretch and when O'Connor made his move at the far turn he was cut off and had to snatch up his mount. Decanter led under a choking pull for the first half and under this treatment tired badly in the stretch run.

Winner—Br. f. by Order—Ruby Royal.
Went to post at 2:30. At post 10 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. It was a two-horse contest throughout between Oread and Oliver Mc and Oread outgamed the latter at the finish. Oread will be hard to beat from now on in her class. Olea swerved from the middle of the track to the inside rail when it came to a drive. Prestidigitator could not live the pace and dropped out of it in the final furlong. Brusquerie ran a fairly good race. Lady Contrary was never prominent.

Scratched—15562 Ben Hadad, 110; 14627 Rochester, 91.
Overweights—Brusquerie, 3 pounds; The Laurel, 2; Chenille, 1.
Oread, place, 4 to 5; show, out. Oliver Mc, place, 2 to 1; show, 6 to 5. Olea, place, 2 to 1; show, evens. Prestidigitator, place, evens; show, 1 to 2.

Winner—Ch. c. by Faraday—Slipaway.
Went to post at 3:05. At post 9 minutes. Start bad. Won easily; second and third driving. Far Rockaway always held his field safe. He was drawing away at the end and won as he pleased and is a fast one. Mauga finished strongly and would have been second in two more strides. Billionaire and Bounteous had a great contest for place. The Parader and Seip ran well. The Rhymer is a bad actor at the post. Longshoreman got off badly.

Scratched—17693 Lanceman, 107; G. W. W., 107; 17405 Little Tim, 107; Purse, 104.
Overweights—The Rhymer, 3 pounds; Militant, 5.

Winner—Ch. c. by Rayon d'Or—Lady Margaret.
Went to post at 3:40. At post 7 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Magnificent had to go all around his field to get to the front. He was best and was drawing away at the end. Asquith ran a sparkling race. He came from last place at the stretch turn and finished fast and strongly on the outside. Herbert was cut off at the turn out of the backstretch and Mitchell had to pull up. He came again fast at the end. Watch him. Goldone and Mark Cheek faded away in the run home. The latter did well for part of the route and may have been short.
Scratched—17596 Manitoban, 109.
Overweights—Precursor, 1 pound.
Magnificent, place, 8 to 5; show, 4 to 5. Asquith, place, 8 to 1; show, 4 to 1. Herbert, show, evens. Mark Cheek, place, 7 to 5; show, 3 to 5.

Winner—B. c. by His Highness—Alhada.
Went to post at 4:15. At post 12 minutes. Start good. Won ridden out; second driving. Hesper was best and well ridden but had to be hustled along through the entire route. Buffoon was in a pocket to the stretch where he had a sharp contest all through the last furlong with King Bramble. The latter pinned his ears back in the last sixteenth and appeared to be sulking. Chappaqua showed early speed but stopped as if short.
Overweights—King Bramble, 2 pounds; Ross Clark, 1.
Hesper, place, out. Buffoon, place, 3 to 5; show, out. King Bramble, 5 to 1; show, 8 to 5.

Winner—Br. c. by Pessara—Rupert.
Went to post at 4:55. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won all out; second easily. Approval made his debut for the year in good form and under strong riding won like a good horse, although tiring at the end. Wait Not had to go all around his field and was gradually wearing the leader down at the end. Survivor had a rough journey. He was under restraint on the backstretch and when O'Connor made his move at the far turn he was cut off and had to snatch up his mount. Decanter led under a choking pull for the first half and under this treatment tired badly in the stretch run.
Scratched—17553 Rinaldo II, 111; 17717 Chappaqua, 109; 17643 Kriss Kringle, 106; 17594 Ban-g or, 106.

Winner—Ch. h. by Victory—Queal.
Went to post at 5:20. At post 4 minutes. Start fair. Won handily; second the same. Maximo Gomez ran a fine race, finished fast and was drawing away at the end. Kinnickinick went all around his field and finished strongly. Lindemere, after falling away, came again at the end and ran a good race. The Kentuckian and Danforth were used up in setting the pace. Both tired in the run home. The latter was pulled up when beaten. Gonfalon was probably a bit short. He hung when it came to a drive.
Scratched—17692 Box, 123; 17718 Decanter, 113; 14862 Latson, 112; (17612) Queen of Song, 110; 13339 Vulcain, 108; 17576 Silver Garter, 104; 17716 Herbert, 103; 17612 Lothario, 102.
